Ewa Kulka (born in 1979 in Krakow)

Graduate of the Painting Department at the Academy of Fine Arts in Krakow. She received a diploma with distinction in 2004. Over the years she took part in numerous individual and group exhibitions. Her creative work is dominated by feminine and girly figures. She is comfortable with a wide range of the colour spectrum. She mainly creates large oil paintings, but she feels equally well in small symbolic works that are rich in detail. Many of her works are in private collections.
